Community Liaison (Part-Time) Community Partnership Unit

RICHMOND COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

The men and women of the Richmond County District Attorney's (RCDA) office work each day in partnership with Law Enforcement and the people of Staten Island to pursue justice for victims of crime, to prevent crime in all its forms, and to promote the safety and well-being of all citizens of our Borough.

THE BUREAU

Community Partnership Unit strengthens relationships between law enforcement and the communities across Staten Island by developing, communicating, and promoting initiatives that protect public safety and prevent crime.

THE ROLE

The Richmond County District Attorney's Office has an opening for a Community Liaison within the Community Partnership Unit (CPU). Under the direct supervision of the Director of the Community Partnership Unit, the primary responsibilities of the position include, but are not limited to:

- Develops and delivers presentations and initiatives that address and raise awareness on issues including the drug epidemic, gun violence, domestic violence, identity theft and scams, animal abuse, mental health and homelessness, and other pressing public safety issues.
- Collaborates on a regular basis with the NYPD, government agencies, elected officials and other stakeholders for the purpose of building effective communication, enhancing relationships and promoting a positive public image.
- Regularly attends and represents the agency at community meetings and other events as it relates to the scope of Community Partnership Unit and RCDA initiatives (this includes meetings on nights and weekends).
- Synthesizes information and feedback from the community and brings it to the office to inform policy and program development and implementation.
- Utilizes internet, technology, social media, and publications to research issues affecting the borough of Staten Island
- Analyzes data and complex information to prepare clear, concise, and accurate reports, correspondence, records, and other written materials.
- Other duties as assigned

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

1. High school graduation or equivalent and three years of experience in community work or community centered activities in an area related to duties described above; or
2. Education and/or experience which is equivalent to "1" above.

PREFERRED SKILLS

- A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college and two years of experience in community organizing or community relations on Staten Island.
- Excellent organizational, writing and communication skills.
- Experience in intergovernmental project management with the ability to develop and foster responsive relationships between local community officials and law enforcement agencies.
- Flexible schedule to attend evening and weekend events.
- Exceptional time management skills with attention to detail and ability to prioritize.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint).
- Experience utilizing social media platforms including Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram
- Strong work ethic, self-starter, attention to detail, and ability to complete tasks in a timely fashion with limited supervision.
- Bilingual speaking abilities preferred, but not required.

LOAN FORGIVENESS:

The federal government provides student loans forgiveness through its Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program (PLF) to all qualifying public service employees. Working with the Staten Island District Attorney's Office qualifies you as a public service employee, which forgives the remaining balance on your direct loans after you've reached a certain number of qualifying payments (most people use this to forgive school loans)!
